Reg. No. | | | | | | | | | | |

[12CS/IS 81]

EIGHTH SEMESTER B.E EXAMINATION, JUNE – 2016

SERVICE ORIENTED ARCHITECTURE

Time:3 Hours Maximum Marks:70

Instructions:

1. Answer any FIVE full Questions.
2. Missing data may be suitably assumed.

1.	a.	Explain the key technologies that converge to create service oriented enterprise.	08
	b.	With a diagram of basic web services architecture, describe the interactions between web service requester and provider.	06
2.	a.	What are the privacy characteristics that should go into the design, implementation and management of services?	04
	b.	Explain the technical benefits of a service oriented architecture.	10
3.	a.	What are the basic sets of common service models? Explain.	09
	b.	Explain the two categories that a WSDL service description can be separated into.	05
4.	a.	Explain any five key elements of a web services platform.	10
	b.	State the most common interaction patterns. Discuss any two in detail.	04
5.	a.	With a neat diagram, explain why it is useful to categorize services into atomic and composite services.	09
	b.	Mention the similarities between Java and J2EE and CORBA related to SoA.	05
6.	a.	State and explain any five layers of IT technology stack where integration can be accomplished.	10
	b.	What are the key elements of ESB pattern?	04
7.	a.	Explain the three specifications that WS-Policy refers to.	09
	b.	What do web services metadata and metadata technologies include?	05
8.	a.	Describe any four specific challenges and threats that the overall web services security environment must address.	08
	b.	Write a note on data-level security.	06